

Ambassadors At a Glance

Earn your Journey Summit Pin by completing any three journeys. The journeys for Ambassadors are Your Voice, Your World, Justice, Bliss: Live It, Give It, Think Like a Citizen Scientist, Think Like an Engineer, Outdoor Ambassador Journey, and Think Like a Programmer.

Girl Scout Mariner- Earn this pin by completing the following requirements within the first year of becoming a Girl Scout Mariner:

- Know and recite the Girl Scout Promise
  - Know and recite the Girl Scout Law
  - Complete option A or B described below
- A. Mariners ON or IN water
1. Acquire basic swimming skills by swimming fifty (50) yards using any stroke, and treading water fully clothed for three (3) minutes.
  2. Select a watercraft or water sport.
- B. Mariners NEAR water
1. Learn basic skills to prevent drowning.
  2. Select a focus area, such as marine or aquatic ecology.
  3. Study and learn the safety protocol required for the focus area

Although most girls will pursue option A, option B exists for girls who want to become Mariners but are unable to access the traditional Mariner experience. Girls who choose Option B should work with their troop leader to determine which of the skills described will best support her safe Mariner experience. Girls who choose Option A should start by earning the pin, then complete water safety, and finally choose path one or path two to continue her Mariner experience.

Trailblazer- Is adventure your true north? Earn this pin by completing the following requirements within the first year of becoming a Trailblazer:

- Know and recite the Girl Scout Promise
- Know and recite the Girl Scout Law
- Complete the first level of three (3) concentrations including: hiking, camping, stewardship, survivorship, and adventure sports.

Earn your Cookie Entrepreneur Family pins each year by completing the worksheet found here: https://www.girlscouts.org/content/dam/girlscouts-gsusa/forms-and-documents/cookie/cef-req/GSUSA\_CEF\_Requirements-Ambassador.pdf

Earn your Safety Pin by completing these five steps:

1. Pick a safety issue important to you, and organize a forum where other teens can discuss the issue. (Can't meet in person? Hold an online forum or pose questions on social media to start conversation.)
2. Talk to younger Girl Scouts about Internet Safety and safe use of social media. (Can't meet in person? Make a video you can share with younger girls.)
3. List your duties as a counselor-in-training, volunteer-in-training, or in other leadership roles you hold. Carry the list with you, and use it to make sure you've covered all your bases when making a safety plan for trips and events.
4. Talk to a counselor, social worker, or someone who works at a local women's shelter to find out more about how to stay safe while dating. (Can't meet in person? Try e-mail, phone, or search online for resources.)
5. Pick a sport or outdoor activity you enjoy. Find out how rules, training, and safety equipment are designed to protect players.

The Girl Scouts My Promise, My Faith pin invites girls in grades K-12 to experience a faith journey through exploration of the Girl Scout Law and teachings from their faith. Girls can earn this national pin each year. Earn your My Promise, My Faith pins by completing these steps:

1. Choose one line from the Girl Scout Law. Find a story, song, or poem from your faith with the same ideas. Talk with your family or friends about what that line of the Law and the story, song, or poem have in common.
2. Find a woman in your own or another faith community. Ask her how she tries to use that line of the Law in her life.
3. Gather three inspirational quotes by women that fit with that line of the Girl Scout Law. Put them where you can see them every day!
4. Make something to remind you of what you've learned. It might be a drawing, painting, or poster. You could also make up a story or a skit.
5. Keep the connection strong. Find out if your faith community offers a recognition program for Girl Scouts. Talk with your friends, family, or a group in your faith community about what you've learned about your faith and Girl Scouting. Ask them to help you live the Law and your faith. Maybe you can show them what you just made or perform your skit!

Adult volunteers from faith organizations partner with girls by:

- ◆ Linking the national pin into their faith's religious recognitions
- ◆ Guiding girls through their personal faith journey
- ◆ Helping girls strengthen their understanding of their faith

National Leadership Awards

The Gold Torch Award This award recognizes an Ambassador who acts as a leader in her community. To earn the award, do these two things:

1. Complete one Ambassador Leadership Journey
2. Serve for one full term in a leadership position at your schools, place of worship, library, town, council, community center, after-school club, or similar organization. For example, you might serve on a planning committee for graduation, co-teach a youth class at your place of worship, or serve on a Girl Scout board of directors. The length of your service will depend on the term specified by the organization or the particular position you hold.

Ambassador Community Service Bar When you earn the Ambassador Community Service bar, you are making a difference in your community– and practicing the values of the Girl Scout Promise and Law. It’s also a great way to get involved with a cause you are about.

To earn the bar, first choose an organization you’d like to volunteer with. The organization will need to agree to give you instructions about the work you’ll be doing. Your council needs to approve your service, so check with it before you begin. Once you’ve chosen your organization, complete at least 20 hours of service to earn the bar.

Ambassador Service to Girl Scouting Bar If you choose to volunteer at least 20 hours to the Girl Scout organization, you can receive the Ambassador Service to Girl Scouting bar. For example, you might volunteer your time at a special event for younger girls, be an office assistant for your council or service unit, or help with special projects.

Your Service hours for these bars need to be separate from those you use towards other awards, Each bar represents a new project, and can only be earned once.

Mentoring Awards

When you guide people or teach them something you know, you're acting as a mentor. As an Ambassador, you have some exciting opportunities to help younger Girl Scouts by sharing your skills, passions, and experience.

Counselor-in-Training (CIT) 1 Mentor younger girls in a camp setting as you build skills toward becoming a camp counselor. To earn this award, complete these steps:

CIT

1. Take a leadership course designed by your council on outdoor experiences.
2. Work with younger girls over the course of a camp session

Counselor-in-Training (CIT) 2 To earn this award:

CIT II

1. Earn your CIT 1 award.
2. Work with younger girls over the course of at least one camp session while focused on increasing your skills in one specific area— such as riding instruction, lifeguarding, or the arts.

Volunteer-in-Training (VIT) This award is for girls who'd like to mentor a Girl Scout Daisy, Brownie, Junior, or Cadette group outside of the camp experience. If you've completed ninth grade, you're eligible to earn this award. Your VIT project should span a three-to-six-month period.

VIT

1. Find a mentor volunteer who is currently the adult volunteer for a group of girls at the level you'd like to work with. This volunteer will help you through your training and internship, and you'll help the volunteer with her group of girls for the three-to-six-month period.
2. Complete a council-designed leadership course.
3. Create and implement a thoughtful program based on a Journey or badge that lasts over four or more sessions. Be responsible for designing, planning, and evaluating the activities. If you're passionate about a topic like art or technology, you could design the activities around the area you love or in which you have expertise.

Girl Scout Gold Award

You can become a Gold Award Girl Scout if you:

- are in ninth, tenth, eleventh, or twelfth grade
- are a registered Girl Scout Senior or Ambassador
- have completed two Senior or Ambassador Journeys, or have earned the Girl Scout Silver Award and completed one Senior or Ambassador Journey

How to earn the Girl Scout Gold Award:

- Let your council know you want to earn it.
- Find an issue in your community or the world that you care about.
- Learn everything you can about that issue through research and trusted sources.
- Form a team by identifying experts and people in your community who could help you.
- Think about the root cause of an issue, then make a plan of how you could tackle it.
- Submit your project proposal to your Girl Scout council for approval.
- Lead your team and carry out your plan.
- Reflect on the change you've created in your community and the world, share your story, and inspire others to make a difference, too.

Bridging to Girl Scout Adult

To earn the Bridge to Girl Scout Adult Award, the last award you can earn as a girl member, complete two bridging steps:

Step 1: Pass it on!

Share your talents and skills by teaching younger Girl Scout something you learned to do as an Ambassador.

This list has a few ideas to get started. You only have to do one of these– or something like it – to complete the step:

- Share favorite things you did on a National Leadership Journey. Did you add a trip? Meet local experts? Do something special when you earned your awards? Put together a special package or presentation to share advice and experiences with Seniors.
- Share with a group of Seniors your favorite memories of being an Ambassador– your Take Action projects, trips, outings, friendships, and leadership lessons learned. As you help Seniors define what leadership means to them, reflect on how others helped you along the way.
- Inspire younger girls by helping them earn badges or complete a Journey activity. You could hold a fitness clinic, teach a dance class, take them geocaching, or pass on any other special skill you’ve learned as a Girl Scout.

Step 2: Look Ahead!

More than 900,000 adults empower girls to become leaders through Girl Scouting. Talk to Girl Scout Adults to find out what inspires them and to get ideas about what you’d like to do.

This list has a few ideas to get started. You only have to do one of these– or something like it – to complete the step.

- Get together with a Girl Scout adult. This doesn’t have to be formal. You can start a conversation at a pizza party, take a walk on the beach, have a movie night, or go on a camping trip. Ask your adult why she thinks the Girl Scout legacy has endured or what she considers the highlights of volunteering.
- Hold an appreciation breakfast or lunch for Girl Scout adults who have supported you. Share your memories, photos, or even a poem to tell them how much their help meant to you.
- Create a slide show of your best moments in Girl Scouts. Add some music, then gather your friends, family, and the Girl Scout adults who influenced you to share your walk down memory lane.
